

LIVEWORK detroit!

There was a time when Detroit
was a city of opportunity.

IT'S TIME AGAIN.

The New York Times said it best, "Detroit pushes back with young muscles." Thanks to LiveWorkDetroit!, more young professionals and soon-to-be college grads are discovering every day all the opportunities Detroit has to offer.

This year, LiveWorkDetroit! will host several events for college students and young professionals.

Participants will:

- Tour downtown Detroit and explore great places to live and work, and cool things to do;
- Hear about opportunities that make Detroit the best place in the country for young professionals. (Recent speakers: Dan Gilbert, Quicken Loans; Peter Karmanos, Compuware);
- Network with Detroit employers who are hiring college graduates now.

Experience LiveWorkDetroit!

We invite you to be a part of the exciting buzz that is re-charging Detroit. LiveWorkDetroit! is recruiting:

- College students and young professionals to attend events;
- Student ambassadors to join the LiveWorkDetroit! On Campus Team;
- Detroit-area employers looking to recruit new talent.
